TARIFF PICTURES.

How growing import duties are reasons for wanting a Tariff law has been made. During the five years previous to 1892 our annual average export of hops was valued at $1,083,081.

In 1892 under the new Tariff we exported hops to the value of $2,420,502.

IN A QUANDARY.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—A year or so ago Senator Hill said he didn't know whether his party had a Tariff policy or not, and nearly every leader of that party is in the same fix now.

THE NEW BROOM.

New York Press.—It is announced that the new Commissioner of Pensions will make a clean sweep of the Pension Office. He would please his party more by making a clean sweep of the pension roll.

A NEW FORM OF STATE RIGHTS.

Herald Post.—In a pending Embassador Roads, who has been chosen Senator from North Dakota, the argument of the Democrats seems to be that any state has a right to be represented by a rascal if it wants to be.

New York Tribune.—It requires the joint act of the President and the Senate to create an American Minister Plenipotentiary. But it seems Mr. Cleveland thinks that the President alone can make a "Special Commissioner" with powers paramount to a Minister's. Since when did a part become greater than a whole?

A CHURCH BUILDER.

New York Tribune.—One of the most notable features of the reign of Emperor William is the extraordinary impulse which has been given during the last few years to the building of churches in various parts of the Empire. In Berlin alone no less than twenty-six new churches have either been erected or commenced since the accession of Emperor William, which added to the four-and-twenty evangelical churches with which the Prussian Capital was previously provided, will render Berlin as fully entitled to style itself "The City of Churches" as Brooklyn. These new churches represent a money value of 20,000,000 marks, 3,000,000 of which have been provided by the Emperor and the Government, while all the remainder has been raised by voluntary contribution.

AN UNPatriotic ADMINISTRATION.

Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.—Up to date the foreign policy of the President has been a disgrace to the American name. His "Finance Minister" and Secretary of State were not just seated when they were sent to Paris to act as representatives at the tribunal of arbitration in Paris. These representatives were represented as little better than thieves who were drawing unnecessary salaries, and at one time there was prospect that two or three Secretaries would be recalled and publicly disgraced. The news of the singularly meek attitude of Secretary Gresham and his master reached Paris, and it is presumed a protest of great heat came back over the cable. It was so hot that Secretary Gresham winced and made a most humiliating apology, in which the blame was placed on the Administration newspapers.

THE LEAGUE TO MEET.

New York Tribune.—The Republican National League meets on May 10th at Louisville. A great and interesting assembly is anticipated. Chairman Carter of the National Committee has summoned that body, the highest organization of the party, to meet at the same time and place, and there will be brought together the men most conspicuous in party work and influence from every state of the Union. It has been suggested that a more suitable occasion for the League Convention might have been found later in the year, but that matter was determined by the Buffalo Convention, and was not subject to review on the part of those who issued the call for the Louisville meeting. It is to be borne in mind, too, that it takes time for the results of such an assembly to be carried all over the country and to bring forth the fruit in party work prior to the fall elections which they are intended to secure. One thing is certain—the Republican party cannot be hurt by too much discussion. Ours is not the party that suffers by having its plans and purposes analyzed and explained, or by putting its leaders forward in full view of the people.

The general officers of the League are making great efforts to insure the success of the convention. These efforts should be sustained by the League membership in every state. It should be a full convention. No element of the party and no part of the country should fail of representation. The influences that will proceed from the acts and deliberations of the convention can be made most powerful in aid of Republican success wherever there is a state election next fall, and every resource should be strained to render them commanding.

SIMONDS SUICIDES.

A Former Maysillian Takes an Overdose of Morphine.

A telegram was received shortly past noon Saturday announcing the death of George T. Simonds at Anderson, Ind.

No particulars were given beyond the mere statement of his death and the fact that the remains would be sent to his former home at Brattleboro, Vt., for interment.

For several years Mr. Simonds was a resident of Maysville, being of Simonds & McMurtry, proprietors of the Central Hotel.

While here he made many friends by reason of his genial character and companionable disposition.

Some six or seven years ago he sold out his interest in Maysville and went to Bloomington, Ill., where he engaged in the hotel business with Basil Duke, also of that city.

While at Bloomington his wife died, and soon he left there, going shortly afterward to Anderson, where he became proprietor of the Hotel Victoria.

Later information states that he died from the effects of an overdose of morphine, taken with suicidal intent.

Mr. Simonds was a member of Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., whose officers directed the local Commandery to take charge of the body and draw on them for all expenses.

The fire originated in the haymow of the stable and is believed to have been the work of the stable boy. The store and warehouse of the Washington Fire Company, May 19th and 20th.

THE GIGANTIC.

Monster Ship to be Built for the White Star Line.

It Will be Larger than the Famous Great Eastern.

The Voyage to Be Made From Queenstown to Sandy Hook in About One Year—
England Thinks Well of Our Navy and Wants to be More Friendly.

Now, boys, May 1.—The naval review in New York has been attended with more attention over here than anything occurring in America for a long time. Whenever British war vessels go one can be sure they are followed with eager interest. This is the one strong point of glory of the English nation; it is jealousy pure. Both the press and the public comment on the fine showing made by the British warships at New York.

The gathering together of so many American men, showing the strength of the new navy, has had a visible national impression here and may be said to mark a distinct step towards cementing the cordial relations of the two countries. Here and there is talk of a war between us, but what the United States want with what the growlers call an unnecessarily big navy, but the general feeling is that suggested by the St. James Gazette. Speaking of the review it says:

"More striking in some ways was the United States contingent itself. As was only natural, it was the largest on view—fourteen vessels in all. And these American ships must be more modern, more powerful, and in every way more remarkable. Her builders are making a great secret of her construction, and all information is withheld. However, it has leaked out that she is a battleship."

While the Cambria, the largest vessel afloat, is 620 feet long, 63 foot beam and of 30,000 horse-power, the new Gigantic will be longer than the Great Eastern. Her dimensions are 700 feet length, 68 foot beam and 45,000 horse-power. She will be about eight feet longer than the Great Eastern and 15 feet less in breadth. The horse-power of the Great Eastern's engines, however, was less than 8,000.

The Gigantic is to run at a speed of two and one-half miles an hour in the ocean, so that the voyage from Queenstown to Sandy Hook will be reduced to about 100 hours, or just over four days.

EXPOSITION GUIDES.

How They Will Answer Visitors' Questions
on Methods of Transportation at Jackson Park.

CHICAGO, III., May 1.—The Columbian fair guides will number 100 men, and will wear gray uniforms. They will be for hire, like gondolas upon the exposition lagoon, and are instructed to answer civilly any and all questions propounded by visitors who employ them.

Rehearsals of the guides are being held daily. They are expected to answer promptly all questions relating to the exposition grounds and buildings, but will be permitted to answer gravely, "I don't know," when asked, "Where is my umbrella?" or "Why is it so cold in Chicago?"

A fleet of electric launches has been placed upon the lake and will be ready for active service Monday morning. These craft, together with the gondolas from Venice, will offer transportation for millions of visitors, and will be given a grand mad, inasmuch as the waterways wind through all portions of the grounds, and afford the easiest method of travel. Electric trolleys on elevated roads will run from point to point in the grounds, but it is believed that these will be badly overcrowded, and therefore unprofitable to use.

The Illinois Central railroad, running from the city to the exposition grounds, is already causing general complaints by its slow and irregular service. The thousands of exhibitors and sightseers who are daily going back and forth, are obliged to hang on to trunks as best they can, even the steps to the platforming causing the most trouble. People do not ride upon the locomotive boiler, owing to its excessive heat; but they are almost literally hanging on by the ears to every other available spot.

Such a condition of things augurs ill for the traveling public when the exposition gets fairly under way and added multitudes are forced to use the Illinois Central in getting to and from the city.

A Compliment to the Admirals.

NEW YORK, May 1.—The Admirals and their wives, and the English and foreign ships in the harbor received an invitation to visit the World's fair. A special train was placed at their disposal by the New York Central railroad, and they were asked to name an hour when they could conveniently start.

Mrs. Campbell Undergoes an Operation.
NEW YORK, May 1.—Mrs. Campbell, wife of the ex-governor of Ohio, underwent an operation for a removal of a tumor in the brain. The operation was successful and the physicians say health will be restored to the lady.

E. L. Harper's Free Han.

COLUMBUS, O., May 1.—E. L. Harper, the Fidelity bank wrecker, was released from the penitentiary Monday morning, having completed six years of his sentence.
